

The State of Washington

Proclamation

WHEREAS, engineers utilize empirical scientific and technical data to formulate creative solutions that allow Washingtonians to enjoy cleaner air and water, safer transportation systems, more productive and efficient environments, and an improved quality of life; and

WHEREAS, we are a country and state created largely through enterprise, and it is the skill, ingenuity, and hard work of engineers that transforms creative vision into reality; and

WHEREAS, as Washington continues in this new century and period of economic challenge, we recognize the important role that engineers play in the revitalization of our state; and

WHEREAS, engineers in the state of Washington are joining other members of the engineering and scientific community throughout our nation in celebrating the 69th annual National Engineers Week;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Jay Inslee, Governor of the state of Washington, do hereby proclaim February 20-26, 2021, as in Washington, and I encourage all people in our state to join me in this special observance.

Engineers Week

Signed this 24th day of January, 2022
